

Lamp of Knowledge CELEBRATION

2025

WE ARE PLEASED TO WELCOME
KEYNOTE SPEAKER

MAX HAUSER

Max Hauser – a previous CollegeReady scholarship recipient and UW-Oshkosh alum – is the founder of Liminal Vision Films.

A film producer, director and camera operator, Max has built a diverse portfolio of rock ‘n’ roll road documentary filmmaking, music video production, and compelling brand work with Nike, Netflix, Amazon Prime, CVS, The History Channel, General Motors, Lexus, Thursday Night Football, Harley Davidson, and many others.

From feature-length documentaries, to the television series “TheUnXplained” with William Shatner, to a documentary on John Prine for Radical Media, Max has built an eclectic career on a wide array of productions. His work has been viewed 20+ million times on social media for artists such as viral comedian Charlie Berens and author/musician Brett Newski.

Max is a graduate of the UW-Oshkosh Radio/TV/Film program, where he wrote and directed his award-winning short film, “So We Bowl”. He frequently mentors current college students, helping them discover and pursue their own college and career dreams.

ABOUT US

CollegeReady creates hope and brighter futures for youth of all backgrounds in Northeast Wisconsin. Through scholarships and college readiness programming, we help students break down barriers to higher education and change their lives.

Founded in 1962 as Scholarships, Inc., we are a local nonprofit funded by forward-thinking donors and backed by a diverse group of champions and volunteers.

With financial and academic support, along with encouragement from our friends and neighbors, CollegeReady is committed to helping local youth make their college and career dreams come true.
